

The story of your Wedding in beautiful images.

Congratulations on your forthcoming marriage. Here is a quick introduction to our wedding photography services. There is flexibility in all the packages, so please feel free to call or visit the studio to discuss your requirements.

Our usual style of photography is a mixture of contemporary and formal photography with some reportage thrown in. This mixture of styles usually gives a balanced collection of images that you would be happy to show off in any of our albums or choose simply to receive finished images.

All packages include the following:

1. You are invited to the studio before your wedding to discuss the day-plan and any personal preferences you have. This helps to tailor the photography to suit you and better organise the time required for photography and minimise guests having to wait. There are also a few handy hints and tips we can share.
2. A large screen slide show viewing in the comfort of the studio will give you a good feel for the images taken and a pleasant reminder of your wedding day. Time will also be given to discuss your album design.
3. Two CD's containing your previews in an easy-to-view format.
4. A personal web-site where your family and friends will be able to view the images on-line and order prints. (Not required for 'Simply images' services but can be added)

Designer photobooks and Coffee table books are designed in-house and put on-line for you to preview before printing. Much time and care is put into your design to provide you with a very special reminder of your day as it unfolds.

Photography, processing, colour correction and retouching is done by us so you know it's completed by someone who cares about the quality of the finished images and album.
